Lizette Hill, pencil pusher and paralegal for the FBI

Assigned to a desk job for the last ten years, the FBI had a major shift due to upper echelon decisions. Lizette was assigned to her first undercover position in an office owned by a mafia family involved in the transport of drugs through their shipping yard on Lake Superior.

Keoni Nani is a talented carpenter, working his magic on museums and Victorian homes. When he met Lizette, he had no idea it would throw him into the world of mystery, murder, and romance with a twist . . .

27-year-old attorney Julia Lynton, fed up with uncouth and immature men, wants to meet a proper gentleman like the ones in her grandmother's Regency romance novels. After discovering a mysterious jar in a secret compartment of an antique desk, she travels to Linwood Park in Surrey, England, to discover the jar's origin. Shortly after arriving, she begins to have dreams of things that happened over 200 years in the past. Using the wishing jar, she travels back to 1815 Regency England, where she meets Matthew, the perfect gentleman of her dreams.

Write a wish.
Put it in the jar.
Say the wish
out loud.
Hide the jar
in a secret place.
Your wish will come true at midnight.

Viscount Matthew Linwood, trapped in an arranged betrothal to cold and haughty Miss Caroline Lambert by his Grandmother Linwood and Uncle Devon, meets Julia, and the two are instantly smitten with each other. But little does Matthew know that Devon is also enamored with Julia and is plotting with his grandmother to compromise her and force her into marriage.

Will Julia be able to stay in the past and find her happily ever after with Matthew, or will her remaining result only in heartbreak and disaster for them both?

"Grant Who Can't."

Alexander Grant, engaged three times and never married. He's chosen Number Four and has no intention of becoming her husband either. He's only buying some time to convince his father that being married has nothing to do with being a capable CEO of the family's company.

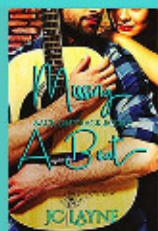

Olivia Barnes goes along with this scheme and has no intention of becoming Grant's wife.

What they don't intend is to enjoy each other's kisses and caresses. An advantageous lark morphs into a relationship neither one expected. But what's real and what's pretense? When lies are what bind two people, how can they trust their foolish hearts?

Is she his long-lost love or a deadly temptation?

Lola Getz and Webster Bond felt an instant spark when they met as high school students in Victory Shores. But their budding romance was cut short when Lola's parents died in a plane crash and she had to return to Mexico.

The widow of a Mexican criminal, Lola's life is in danger when armed men break into her house. She flees to the only place she feels safe: her twenty-fifth high school reunion. Webster, a by-the-book cop, is surprised and thrilled to see her again—and vows to keep her safe.

Sharon Buchbinder is the author of the Hotel LaBelle Series, the Jinni Hunter Series, and the Obsession Series. When not attempting to make students and colleagues laugh or writing, she can be found walking her pugs, Agent Frank and Igor Valentino, waiting on her Maine Coon cat, Buster Brown, or breaking bread and laughing with family and friends.
